WEDNESDAY, MAY 13.

SENATOR HULL'S favorite phrase, "I am a Democrat," should be quoted and adhered to these days more frequently than ever before.

EVERY DEMOCRAT who wants his views on public questions represented in the State and national platforms should not fail to attend the Convention in Hartford on the 30th of this month.

It is altogether likely that Gov. Bradley's name will not be mentioned at St. Louis at all. McKinley will be nominated by acclamation and the gentleman from Kentucky will not be in it.

The Todd County Progress came out last week in a twelve-page form and brimful of good things. It abounded in splendid write-ups and large fine ads., which are prime elements of success.

The Barstow Record last week issued a historical souvenir edition, which is one of the prettiest and most comprehensive publications that have lately come to our desk. It was printed in colors and interspersed with many beautiful pictures.

It is now rumored that Bradley, seeing the handwriting on the wall, has decided to abandon his wild chase after the ignis fatuus of politics, the Presidency, and will soon publicly announce this fact. That anybody save himself ever seriously considered his name in connection with the Presidency, now seems a matter of doubt.

WEALTH can purchase most all the things of this earth except long life. It can buy off most of the impending ills except the grim reaper Death. This is illustrated almost every day and perhaps more so forcibly than within the past few weeks, during which time several men in the prime of life and possessing fabulous riches have succumbed to the great destroyer.

The story of Mrs. Lyons of Graves county, Ky., which was published in last week's HERALD, has been discounted by Mrs. Fritz Heiselt, of Fowler, Ind., who gives to the world six children as the result of one birth. With such a hair-killing catastrophe as this is proved, it is no wonder that the modern young man is a little hockweck about marrying.

KENTUCKY is not hopelessly Republican. True, Democracy suffered a crushing defeat last year, brought about mostly by dissension in its own ranks, but it is hoped the warring factions have learned that unity only is strength. By a united effort of the party Kentucky can be regained. Let's get it about at once and suffer nothing to come between us and the furtherance of this purpose.

No year within the past two decades has been fraught with the interest in a political way now upon us. Perhaps at no time before in the history of the country have the great mass of the people taken the interest in public affairs that they now show. Yet this is an age of great national interest, and a man should be born with will witness changes and events perhaps never before equal in the memory of those living.

All that is asked by the silver men is that the white metal be restored to the place it occupied in our financial system prior to 1873. If it formerly circulated on a parity with gold without depleting the latter, we see no reason why it should not do so now. If it is used to good money, gold should be used to good money again. Surely a few short years should not bring about such a mighty financial upsurge and such marked changes. What do you think?

EVERY DEMOCRAT in the country who has the success of his party at heart should make an effort to attend the Democratic mass convention in Hartford, May 30. If you cannot possibly come, urge your neighbor to do so. It will be the semibazaar of the Democracy in which the party will be considered of above every other matter. The lost prestige of the party in this State must be retrieved. If you love your party you will lend every effort for this year to its restoration to power. Your help is needed.

MR. HENRY WATTERSON is writing a series of most interesting letters to his paper, the Courier-Journal, from his summer resting place in Paris, France. He has dropped politics and writes of people and "things," and dilates on French ways like a native. He does not forget to get a sentence once in a short while to inform the casual reader that he has "been there before, don't you know?" and is quite familiar with French people and scenes. Mr. Watterson is a brilliant writer and is not to be strained quarters in the gay French capital.

The Republicans of California, seeing that Wm. McKinley is a little hockweck in expressing his views on the currency question and perceiving the inevitable nomination of the gentlemen from Ohio, proceed to frame his currency views for him in the following very straightforward way:

"We are the foremost economic college in the country and you are very welcome and instructed to work and vote for us."

And further on they say:

"The delegates from this state are very well educated and instructed to work and vote for us."

It will be remembered that at the election last fall, Mr. John G. Carlisle was approached by a gentleman just as he was casting his vote and asked how he voted. Mr. Carlisle replied mysteriously and told him, "I am a spirit." It was supposed that the Secretaries either stood against or failed to support for Mr. Hadin on account of his name.

RECORD IN KENTUCKY.

(From City Times.)

One of the most remarkable of which we were promised so many by this Republican administration, may be seen at Hopkinsville, where the poor number of voters at the last election appears to be the most in the history of the country, and that would disgrace a dog kennel.

The attendants in charge of these wards of the State thereabouts and right while the people who kindly informed Mr. Carlisle of his name and call Mr. Bradley and his fellow-informant blessed. Verily this is a day of great things in Kentucky.

BOYS' GENTLEMEN WHORE.

(Advertiser.)

Two boys were discussing politics on Main street this week. One declared that if the party did not come out squarely for the candidates, it would not be accepted by the other party.

The other said:

"I am a spirit."

A larva at today's was very sick with a bilious cold when M. C. Taylor, a prominent merchant of the town, gave him a bottle of Chianti wine.

He said he was full in forty minutes after taking it.

Wm. Griffin & Bro., druggists.

THE WAY TO GET RICH.

The way to get rich is to trust nobody, but friend none, get all you can, save all you can, keep all you get, save yourself and everything that belongs to you, and the money of others, and make no friends of your own, but be interested in your own.

Let all of the fighting for principles be done before the convention makes its platform and announces the nominees we are.

THE HERTFORD HERALD.

WHENEVER you see a Democrat jumping up in the air, cracking his teeth together and swearing he will not vote for another Democrat unless said other Democrat's financial views exactly agree with his, you may record it in your little notebook right then and there that the first mentioned gentleman is as much of a Democrat after all. A man who will deliberately force himself into the ranks of a party which for years has enjoyed his respect and faith which he has followed through more trying ordeals than the present, just because he can't have his way on the currency question—well, there is something the matter with that man's Democracy.

THE HERALD must insist on the Hartford Republican giving an authority for charging a fine collected off of the poor of Ohio county.

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Signorini, who is an accomplished musician, gave a dinner party at Washington recently. Among the guests was a certain member of the Senate.

While awaiting the announcement of some of the guests, the hostess played and sang. She had just finished singing a part of an arioso, and she rose from the piano, in the silence which followed the sweet strains, and her husband turned to the gentleman from the latter's seat before dinner, "Colonel?" "Well, I don't mind," promptly replied the Kentucky statesman.

"I shall be the duty of the County Clerk to see that you are well paid for your services," he said, "and that the money you have been accumulated by a disregard of the charities of the human heart and at the expense of every enjoyment of life, will be paid to you."

Mr. Signorini, who is one of the latest arrivals, has been a student of the law, and has been admitted to the bar.

He is a well known fact that he has been recorded, and the letter to the extent only of the fee he gets for recording. Hence it can be seen that the man is a poor County Clerk.

is the standard emulsion not the world over. There is not a man, woman or child who is run down or emaciated or has weak lungs that Scott's Emulsion will not benefit. When you ask for it you will likely be told by the druggist that he has an emulsion "just as good." It is not true. No emulsion is as good.

Scott's Emulsion has benefited millions of people. Ask your druggist if he can refer you to a single case that has been helped by the unknown emulsion he sells, and if so, we will send you a book giving thousands of cases. You want the standard; not something that nobody knows anything about.

All druggists sell Scott's Emulsion.
